

PENNIES FOR PENGUINS SCHOOL CHALLENGE!

Hey Kids,

My name is Tux and I have a very special challenge for your class! WIBW Weather Personality Drew Switzer and I are challenging all elementary schools to participate in the Topeka Zoo's Pennies for Penguins Coin Drive! This coin drive will help support the new penguin exhibit that is coming to your Topeka Zoo in May 2012 called Penguin Plunge!

How do you get involved?

1. Have your teacher go to www.topekazoo.com and register your class to participate in the Pennies For Penguin Coin Drive. All rules pertaining to this challenge will be found on the website.
2. Start collecting your spare change. Checks and cash are also accepted.
3. Turn your donations in to the Friends of the Topeka Zoo by May 1.
4. All donations will be counted and the winning class will be announced LIVE on Drew at the Zoo on May 4th!

An AWESOME Prize Awaits The Class That Raises The Most Money!

- Personal invitation to join Drew and I as our VIP guests on May 10 for the Penguin Plunge Grand Opening.
- Free Zoo admission for the winning class (up to 30 students).
- Transportation voucher to assist in getting you to and from the zoo.
- Special penguin education program presented by the Topeka Zoo Education Department.
- Ice Cream Party to round out your day at the zoo!
